

One single, out-of-the-box solution for an exceptionally smooth video conferencing experience

Logitech Room Solutions for Barco ClickShare Conference: Barco is Logitech's preferred partner for agnostic solutions next to Zoom, Microsoft and Google.

One and one makes three – especially if you bundle the offering of two market leaders. By combining ClickShare's wireless conferencing systems – the latest addition to the popular ClickShare family – with the industry-leading MeetUp and Rally conference cams, Barco and Logitech take the conferencing experience to new levels.

Plug-and-play simplicity, that's what the Logitech Room Solutions for Barco ClickShare are all about. Easy to buy, easy to set up, easy to use and easy to manage, they are bound to be loved by your IT team as well as your users.

IT teams and users will love it for:

- Easy to buy: no more doubts about what video conferencing tools to buy – we've bundled them all in one box – just choose your bundle based on your room size
- Easy to set up: open your box, check out the quick guide, unpack the products, connect everything to the screen and you are ready to go
- Easy to use: Barco's ClickShare solutions and Logitech's conference cams are renowned for offering an unprecedented user experience
- Easy to manage: we've tested the product combinations extensively to ensure smooth integration.
